

ROSA PARKS

tuning: dadgf#d

Great Goliath drove a bus in an Alabama town
He kept his passengers in place
He kept them down
He kept them down

One day, a woman paid her fare
She had weary feet
And when Goliath said, “you’re standing there”
She kept her seat
She kept her seat

CHORUS:

Rosa Parks sat sown
Sending great Goliath to the ground
From a will of stone that struck his crown
The giant came down

It’s been many years since Rosa bruised his evil head
But dear Rosa, what are we to do?
He’s still not dead
He’s still not dead

She says find a stick, find a stone
Find the justice in your bones
Make a sling of stubborn will and move in for the final kill
For the final kill

CHORUS: